

PROGRAMS ARE UP AND RUNNING!

While our centers are temporarily closed to the public, Hopelink is still providing services! Here's how to get involved:

Food - Fresh produce and prepackaged food boxes are available for pick-up at all five Hopelink centers. You do not need to schedule an appointment. Visit hopelink.org/need-help/food for current food distribution hours.

Financial Capabilities - Connect with our Financial Coach for help with prioritizing bills and protecting your finances. Phone or video call appointments are available. Call 425.250.3003 or email FinancialCoaching@hopelink.org.

Family Development Program - Case managers are holding phone appointments. If you are interested in family case management, call 425.883.4755.

Energy Assistance - Schedule an energy appointment by calling 425.658.2592 or at hopelink.org/need-help/energy. All appointments will be held over the phone.

Financial Assistance - Call your local center to request assistance. Appointments will be provided over the phone.

Adult Education - Classes are being offered online! To learn about GED/High School+ classes, email Debbie at DMargolis@hopelink.org or call 425.457.9685. To learn about English for Work classes, email EnglishForWork@hopelink.org or call 425.250.3007.

Housing - Hopelink housing units are filled using King County's Coordinated Entry for All system. Find your Regional Access Point at hopelink.org/need-help/housing.

Employment Program - We are actively enrolling new participants and providing remote job coaching services! We also provide one-time consultations on any job search related topics - like resumes, interviews, and job applications. Email HEP@hopelink.org or call 425.250.3030.

Transportation - Non-Emergency Medical Transportation services are running normally. Go to hopelink.org/need-help/transportation/medicaid-transportation for more information. Travel planning, support for getting around the area, and resources are available by phone or online meetings. Call 425.943.6760 or email Mobility@hopelink.org.
