PROGRAMS ARE UP AND RUNNING!

While our centers are temporarily closed to the public, Hopelink is still providing services! Here's how to get involved:

Food - Prepackaged boxes of food are available for pick-up at all five Hopelink centers. Visit hopelink.org/need-help/food for current food distribution hours.

Financial Capabilities - Financial coaching is available via phone. To get started, fill out a contact form at: hopelink.org/need-help/financial-capabilities

Family Development Program - Case managers are holding phone appointments. If you are interested in family case management, call 425.883.4755 to schedule a phone screening.

Energy Assistance - Schedule an energy appointment by calling 425.658.2592 or at: hopelink.org/need-help/energy. All appointments will be held over the phone.

Financial Assistance - Call your local center to request assistance. Appointments will be provided over the phone.

Adult Education - In-person classes are not meeting right now. To learn about future GED classes, email dmargolis@hopelink.org. To learn about future English for Work classes, email englishforwork@hopelink.org.

Housing - Hopelink housing units are filled using King County's Coordinated Entry for All system. Call a Regional Access Point to be screened: hopelink.org/need-help/housing Employment Program - Employment specialists are holding phone appointments. To get started, call 425.250.3030.

Non-Emergency Medical Transportation - These services are running normally. For more information, see: hopelink.org/need-help/transportation/medicaid-transportation

Mobility Management - Travel education and resources are still available by phone or online meetings. Email mobility@hopelink.org.
