How does my donation help address food insecurity in our community?

At no cost, clients can shop at Hopelink Food Markets as they would in typical grocery stores by choosing the items that best fit their household needs. With your support we can ensure that the thousands of households that visit Hopelink's Markets each year can fill their carts with local and fresh produce for their families.

When is the best time to donate produce?

If possible, please bring your produce donations early in the week so market shoppers can enjoy them while they're freshest. If you harvest in advance, we kindly ask that you store produce in the refrigerator until drop-off. If you have a large donation please contact us at drives@hopelink.org or (425) 869-2440 to schedule your delivery.
